

INITIATIVE MEASURE TO BE SUBMITTED DIRECTLY TO THE VOTERS

TO THE HONORABLE SECRETARY OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA:

We, the undersigned, registered, qualified voters of the State of California, residents of the afore-described County (or City and County), hereby propose amendments to Penal Code Section 667, including the addition of a new Section 667.2, and Section 1170.12, relating to the sentencing of individuals for serious or violent felonies who have been previously convicted of serious or violent felonies, and petition the Secretary of State to submit the same to the voters of the State of California for their adoption or rejection at the next succeeding primary or general election, or at any special statewide election held prior to that primary or general election, or as otherwise provided by law. The proposed statutory initiative reads as follows:

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. TITLE

This initiative shall be known or may be cited as the “Three Strikes Reform Act of 2010.”

SECTION 2. FINDINGS AND DECLARATIONS

The People of the State of California do hereby find and declare that:

- (a) Proposition 184 (the “Three Strikes Law”) was overwhelmingly approved in 1994 with the intent of protecting law-abiding citizens by enhancing the sentences of repeat offenders who committed serious and/or violent felonies;
- (b) Proposition 184 did not exclusively apply enhanced sentences to repeat offenders who committed serious and/or violent felonies;
- (c) Proposition 184 did not set reasonable limits to determine what criminal acts to prosecute as second and/or third strikes;
- (d) Since its enactment, Proposition 184 has been used to enhance the sentences of tens of thousands of persons who did not commit a serious and/or violent crime against another person, at a cost to taxpayers of more than one billion dollars

($1,073,863,896.00) per year.

SECTION 3. PURPOSES

The People do hereby enact this measure to:

- (a) Continue to protect the People from repeat offenders who commit serious and/or violent crimes;
- (b) Ensure greater punishment and longer prison sentences for those who commit serious and/or violent crimes, and who have been previously convicted of serious and/or violent felonies;
- (c) Ensure proportionality in sentencing patterns;
- (d) Reduce the amount of money spent on corrections by over $1 billion a year.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENTS TO SECTION 667 OF THE PENAL CODE

(This format presents struck wording in [strikeout] and new wording in bold italics.)

Section 667 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read:

§ 667. Habitual criminals; Enhancement; Exceptions

- (a) (1) In compliance with subdivision (b) of Section 1385, any person convicted of a serious felony who previously has been convicted of a serious felony in this state or of any offense committed in another jurisdiction which includes all of the elements of any serious felony, shall receive, in addition to the sentence imposed by the court for the present offense, a five-year enhancement for each such prior conviction on charges brought and tried separately. The terms of the present offense and each enhancement shall run consecutively.
- (2) This subdivision shall not be applied when the punishment imposed under other provisions of law would result in a longer term of imprisonment. There is no requirement of prior incarceration or commitment for this subdivision to apply.
- ~~(3) The Legislature may increase the length of the enhancement of sentence provided in this subdivision by a statute passed by majority vote of each house~~ thereof.

(3) (4) As used in this subdivision, “serious felony” means a serious felony listed in subdivision (c) of Section 1192.7

(4) (5) This subdivision shall not apply to a person convicted of selling, furnishing, administering, or giving, or offering to sell, furnish, administer, or give to a minor any methamphetamine-related drug or any precursors of methamphetamine unless to prior conviction was for a serious felony described in subparagraph (24) of subdivision (c) of Section 1192.7.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature ~~Legislature~~ People of the State of California in enacting subdivisions (b) to (i), inclusive, to ensure longer prison sentences and greater punishment for those who commit a serious and/or violent felony or any felony specified in subparagraph (b) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 667 or in subparagraph (c) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (e) of Section 667, and have been previously convicted of serious and/or violent felony offenses.

(c) Notwithstanding any other law, if a defendant has been convicted of a felony and it has been plead and proved that the defendant has one or more prior serious and/or violent felony convictions as defined in subdivision (d), the court shall adhere to each of the following:

(1) There shall not be an aggregate term limitation for purposes of consecutive sentencing for any subsequent serious and/or violent felony conviction.

(2) Probation for the current offense shall not be granted, nor shall execution or imposition of the sentence be suspended for any prior offense.

(3) The length of time between the prior serious and/or violent felony conviction and the current felony conviction ~~shall not~~ shall be considered by the court in the imposition of sentence, provided that the most recent serious and/or violent felony occurred more than 15 years before the date of the current offense and the defendant was free of jail or prison custody for at least 5 years before the date of the current offense.

(4) There shall not be a commitment to any other facility other than the state prison. Diversion shall not be granted, nor shall the defendant be eligible for commitment to the California Rehabilitation Center as provided in Article 2 (commencing with Section 3050) of Chapter 1 of Division 3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(5) The total amount of credits awarded pursuant to Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 2930) of Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3 shall not exceed one-fifth of the total term of imprisonment imposed, and shall not accrue until the defendant is physically placed in the state prison.

(5) (a) If there is a current conviction for more than one non-serious/non-violent felony count not committed on the same occasion, and not arising from the same set of operative facts, the court shall sentence the defendant concurrently on all counts.

(6) If there is a current conviction for more than one serious and/or violent felony count not committed on the same occasion, and not arising from the same set of operative facts, the court shall sentence the defendant consecutively on each count pursuant to subdivision (e).

(7) If there is a current conviction for more than one serious and/or violent felony as described in paragraph (6), the court shall impose the sentence for each conviction consecutive to the sentence for any other conviction for which the defendant may be consecutively sentenced in the manner prescribed by law.

(8) Any sentence imposed pursuant to subdivision (e) will be imposed consecutive to any other sentence which the defendant is already serving, unless otherwise prescribed by law.

(d) Notwithstanding any other law, and for the purposes of subdivisions (b) to (i), inclusive, a prior conviction of a serious and/or violent felony shall be defined as:

(1) Any offense defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 as a violent felony, or any offense defined in subdivision (c) of Section 1192.7 as a serious felony in this state. The determination of whether a prior conviction is a prior serious and/or violent felony conviction for purposes of subdivisions (b) to (i), inclusive, shall be made upon the date of that prior conviction and is not affected by the sentence imposed unless the sentence automatically, upon the initial sentencing, converts the felony to a misdemeanor. None of the following dispositions shall affect the determination that a prior conviction is a prior serious and/or violent felony for purposes of subdivisions (b) to (i), inclusive:

(A) The suspension of imposition of judgment or sentence.

(B) The stay of execution of sentence.

(C) The commitment to the State Department of Health Services as a mentally disordered sex offender following a conviction of a felony.

(D) The commitment to the California Rehabilitation Center or any other facility whose function is rehabilitative diversion from the state prison.

(2) A prior conviction in another jurisdiction for an offense that, if committed in California, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison shall constitute a ~~A~~ prior conviction of a particular serious and/or violent felony if the elements of the crime, as defined by that jurisdiction's statutory or common law, necessarily include all of the elements of a California serious and/or violent felony ~~shall include a conviction in another jurisdiction for an offense that includes all of the elements of the particular felony~~ as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, or subdivision (c) of Section 1192.7.

(3) A prior juvenile adjudication shall constitute a prior felony conviction for purposes of sentence enhancement if:

(A) The juvenile was 16 years of age or older at the time he or she committed the prior offense.

(B) The prior offense is listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or described in paragraph (1) or (2) as a felony.

(C) The juvenile was found to be a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law.

“The Three Strikes Reform Act of 2010”

Proposed initiative scheduled for filing May 4, 2009, with California's Secretary of State Initiative Coordinator, and the Attorney General's Office for title and summary.

(D) The juvenile was adjudged a ward of the juvenile court within the meaning of Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because the person committed an offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) For purposes of subdivisions (b) to (i), inclusive, and in addition to any other enhancement or punishment provisions which may apply, the following shall apply where a defendant has a one or more prior serious and/or violent felony convictions:

(1) (A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), If if a defendant has one prior serious and/or violent felony conviction as defined in subdivision (d) that has been pled and proved, the determinate term or minimum term for an indeterminate term shall be twice the term otherwise provided as punishment for the current felony conviction.

(B) If a defendant has one prior serious and/or violent felony conviction as defined in subdivision (d) that has been pled and proved, and the current offense is not a serious and/or violent felony as defined in subdivision (d), the determinate term, or the minimum term for an indeterminate term, shall not be twice the term otherwise provided as punishment for the current felony conviction, unless the prosecution pleads and proves any of the following:

(i) The current offense is a controlled substance charge in which an allegation under Section 11370.4 or 11379.8 of the Health and Safety Code was admitted or found true.

(ii) The current offense is a felony sex offense, defined in subdivision (d) of Section 261.5 or Section 262, or listed in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 290, except for Sections 266, 285, paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) and subdivision (e) of Section 286, and paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) and subdivision (e) of Section 288a.

(iii) During the commission of the current offense, the defendant personally used a firearm or deadly weapon, was personally armed with a firearm or deadly weapon, or committed an act intended and likely to cause great bodily injury to another person.

(iv) The defendant suffered a prior conviction, as defined in subdivision (d) of this section, for any of the following felonies:

(a) a “sexually violent offense” as defined in subdivision (b) of section 6600 of the Welfare and Institutions Code;

(b) any felony sex offense for which the defendant was required to register pursuant to Section 290;

(c) any homicide offense defined in Sections 187 to 191.5, inclusive;

(d) any serious and/or violent felony offense punishable in the State of California by life imprisonment or death.

(2) (A) Except as provided in subparagraph (C), if a defendant has two or more prior serious and/or violent felony convictions as defined in subdivision (d) that have been pled and proved, the term for the current felony conviction shall be an indeterminate term of life imprisonment with a minimum term of the indeterminate sentence calculated as the ~~greater~~ greatest of:

(i) Three times the term otherwise provided as punishment for each current felony conviction subsequent to the two or more prior felony convictions.

(ii) Imprisonment in the state prison for 25 years.

(iii) The term determined by the court pursuant to Section 1170 for the underlying conviction, including any enhancement applicable under Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 1170) of Title 7 of Part 2, or any period prescribed by Section 190 or 3046.

(B) The indeterminate term described in subparagraph (A) shall be served consecutive to any other term of imprisonment for which a consecutive term may be imposed by law. Any other term imposed subsequent to any indeterminate term described in subparagraph (A) shall not be merged therein but shall commence at the time the person would otherwise have been released from prison.

(C) If a defendant has two or more prior serious and/or violent felony convictions as defined in subdivision (d) that have been pled and proved, and the current offense is not a serious or violent felony as defined in subdivision (d),

(2) ~~The prosecuting attorney,~~ Either party, or the court on its own motion, may move to dismiss or strike a prior serious and/or violent felony conviction allegation in the furtherance of justice pursuant to Section 1385, or if there is insufficient evidence to prove the serious and/or violent felony conviction. If upon the satisfaction of the court that there is insufficient evidence to prove the prior serious and/or violent felony conviction, or that it is in the furtherance of justice to do so, the court may dismiss or strike the allegation.

~~(g) Prior felony convictions shall not be used in plea bargaining as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1192.7. The prosecution shall plead and prove all known prior felony convictions, and shall not enter into any agreement to strike or seek the dismissal of any prior felony conviction allegation except as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (f).~~

~~(hg)~~ All references to existing statutes in subdivisions (c) to (g), inclusive, are to statutes as they existed on May 04, 2009, or as amended by this Act.

~~(ih)~~ If any provision of subdivisions (b) to (h), inclusive, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or application of those subdivisions which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of those subdivisions are severable.

~~(ji)~~ The provisions of this section shall not be amended by the Legislature except by referral of statute passed in each house by roll call vote entered in the journal, two-thirds of the membership concurring, or by a statute that becomes effective only when approved by the electors.

effective date of this act, including amendments made to those statutes by this act.

SECTION 6. RE-SENTENCING OF QUALIFIED INDIVIDUALS

(This format presents new wording in bold italics.)

Section 667.2 is added to the Penal Code to read:

§ 667.2 (a) The re-sentencing provisions under this section and related statutes are intended to apply exclusively to persons currently serving an indeterminate term of life imprisonment pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (e) of Section 667, or paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 1170.12, whose sentence would not have been an indeterminate life sentence had the amendments made by this act been in effect at the time of sentencing.

(b) Subject to the exclusions and limitations set forth below in subdivisions (b) and (c), any person serving an indeterminate term of life imprisonment imposed pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (e) of Section 667, or paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 1170.12 upon conviction, whether by trial or plea, of a felony or felonies that are not defined as serious and/or violent felonies by subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, or subdivision (c) of Section 1192.7, may file a petition for writ of habeas corpus within three (3) years after the effective date of this act to request re-sentencing in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (e) of Section 667, as amended by this act.

(c) No person who is currently serving a term of imprisonment for a “second strike” conviction imposed pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 667, or paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 1170.12, shall be eligible for re-sentencing under the provisions of this section.

(d) The petition for writ of habeas corpus described in subdivision (b) shall specify all the currently charged felonies which resulted in the sentence under paragraph (2) of subdivision (e) of Section 667, or paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 1170.12, or both, and shall also specify all of the prior convictions alleged and proved under subdivision (d) of Section 667, and subdivision (b) of Section 1170.12.

(e) A person who meets the requirements of subdivision (b) of this Section may request appointment of counsel by sending to the sentencing court a written request for representation by counsel to prepare a petition under this section for purposes of re-sentencing.

“The Three Strikes Reform Act of 2010”

Proposed initiative scheduled for filing May 4, 2009, with California’s Secretary of State Initiative Coordinator, and the Attorney General’s Office for title and summary.

(f) If the court determines that the person filing a petition for writ of habeas corpus is eligible to be re-sentenced under the criteria set forth in subdivision (b), and is not excluded by the disqualifying factors in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (e) of Section 667, and/or subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 1170.12, the court shall re-sentence that person in accordance with the Three Strikes statutes as amended by this act. The court shall take all reasonable steps to complete action on the petition within 120 days of receipt.

(g) Under no circumstances may re-sentencing under this act result in the imposition of a term longer than the original sentence.

(h) Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 977, a defendant petitioning for re-sentencing may waive his or her appearance in court for the re-sentencing provided that the accusatory pleading is not amended at the re-sentencing, and that no new trial or retrial of the individual will occur. The waiver shall be in writing, and signed by the defendant.

(i) Nothing in this Section is intended to diminish or abrogate any rights or remedies otherwise available to the defendant.

(j) Notwithstanding the requirement in subdivision (b) that a petition for re-sentencing be filed within three (3) years of the effective date of this act, the court may accept and act upon a petition filed later if the person filing the petition shows good cause as to the reasons for delay.

(k) Nothing in this and related Sections is intended to diminish or abrogate the finality of judgments in any case not falling within the purview of this act.

SECTION 7. REPEAL OF SECTION 1170.12 OF THE PENAL CODE
(This format presents struck wording in [~~strikeout~~] and new wording in bold italics.)

§ 1170.12. The People of the State of California find that Penal Code Section 1170.12, enacted by the Legislature before voters adopted Proposition 184 at the November 8, 1994 General Election, is superseded and rendered moot by the enactment of Penal Code Section 667, and the amendments in this statute. The substance of Section 1170.12 is therefore hereby repealed. Notwithstanding this repeal, no person convicted of or imprisoned for an offense or penalty enhancement under this section shall be
